Serial No.

Letter dated 7.1.1938 from the Comptroller to Govt. forwarding for favourable consideration copy of application from Mr. S. Krishna murthy. Accts Probationer, for an enhanced pay of Rs 100/- p.m.

1) Mr. S. Krishna murthi was first appointed in Dec 1935 on probation on Rs 80/- p.m. in the Subordinate Accounts Service of the Comptroller's Office against an Accountant's place in grade Rs 60-10½-100. In June 1937 Mr Krishna murthi along with Messrs D. Basavaraju and H. Chikkanna was appointed Accounts Probationer (Vide Govt. No. 3023-26 dated 10.6.1937.) During the probationary period which has been fixed for a period of 2 years, their pay has been fixed at Rs 80/- p.m. (Vide para 3 of Govt No. 2089-81 dated 23-2-1937)

2. Mr. Krishna murthi requests that in view of his very high qualifications - he is an M.A and an M.L.— and in view of the fact that he has been drawing a pay of Rs 80/- for over 18 months his pay may be raised to Rs 100/- p.m.

3. He has recently been deputed to assist Mr C. Subramanya Iyer in the Comparison of the enactments here and in C&M. States. The work under the Special officer is considered to be of a

(8) Since writing the above, the following note is also submitted for consideration.

(9) Mr. Krishna Moorty was entertained as a Probationer in June last. Prior to that, he was working already in the Comptroller's Office for nearly a year on Rs 80/- Before he was entertained as Probationer, he passed the LL.M. examination. For the past few months he has been working under Mr. Subramanya Iyer on special duty in connection with Retrocession problems, and [illegible] Judicial training.

(12) By training and aptitude he seems to be fitted for the Judicial Department. The question whether he should go back to the Comptroller's Office or be found a place in the Judicial Department will have to be considered after the special duty is over Meanwhile Mr. Krishna Moorty has represented that ir view of his qualifications and particularly, his having obtained the highest degree in Law, a higher pay may be given to him. The Comptroller has forwarded his application for favourable consideration. Taking into consideration the special work to which he is posted and also his high qualifications, I submit that his request for being granted a pay of Rs 100/- per mensem is reasonable and may be sanctioned.

C.B. Mis 81/38

Sir,

I have the honor to forward, herewith, for favourable consideration and orders of Government, copy of application dated 7th January 1938 from Mr. S. Krishnamurthy, M.A., LL.M. Probationer of this Department, praying for an enhanced pay of Rs. 100/- per mensem.

He was first appointed in my office on Rs. 80/- per mensem according to Government Order No.FI.5426-7 G.F.12-35-34 dated 30th December 1935 and later on, appointed as Accounts Probationer in Government Order No.3142-45/C.B.125-36-11 dated 22nd June 1937.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

To

The Comptroller to Government,

B a n g a l o r e.

Sir,

I am working in the Comptroller's Office as a Probationer on Rs 80/- per mensem from 25-6-1937. Unlike other Probationers, who were new entrants to the Government Service, I was already holding a position on Rs 80/- in this office from 9-3-36.

This latter post was conferred on me when I had passed the M.A. and LL.B. Examinations. Since then, I have passed the LL.M. Examination of the Bombay University and the Local Accounts Higher. In view of the fact that I have taken the Masters Degree in both Arts and Law and was drawing Rs 80 for over 15 months before being appointed as Probationer on the same pay, I request you to kindly move Government and get my pay raised to Rs 100/-.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Sd/- S. Krishnamurthy
(Probationer Accounts Department)
